

Wednesday

My dear wee Motherkin

Many thanks for your letter of this morning. I am sorry that you are so down in body. Try and cheer up. There is really nothing to worry about as far as I am concerned. I am doing my job as well as I can and glad to do it and you can count me out. If only you yourself and Nana and everybody keeps well that is all right. I hope that Nana is having a good time in London. I am going to write her tonight.

This has been a busy day. Up to 75 at the range from 6 till 1.30 and a parade in the afternoon. I had a bath before dinner.

My pistol has arrived a very nice weapon and only cost £2.5. (the usual price is £5)

These two more letters to write no more the shortness of the

I am very glad that you will join for a short time to Miss M. Hope that you are having a good time there and no worry. You need a rest badly well body. You brotherly is fast approaching well body and then just nothing for you yet. I will try and get something on Saturday. I had no idea that it was so far on in August. You is feeling very rapidly with all this work.
We may get 4 days leave shortly Could you come to London? In any case I will probably be coming to Stobs soon.

Give my love to Miss Marlow
Hope that she is well.

Very much love

Your affectionate
Albert